

Cartus is honored to be a 2017 Summit level sponsor of the Rocky Mountain Relocation Council and is committed to the success and growth of the organization. Cartus has sponsored the Rocky Mountain Relocation Council for many years - participating in the Council's networking events and conferences and supporting local Denver Area charities through volunteer activities.

Benefits realized by Cartus' association with the Rocky Mountain Relocation Council include expansion of professional networks, connection with Human Resource mobility leaders, and increased exposure to benchmarking, best practices, and current and future economic, real estate, mobility and human resource trends.

We are pleased that our employees, Scott Hunt, Brian Harris and Morgan Snapp, will represent Cartus with their involvement in the Rocky Mountain Relocation Council during 2017.

Cartus provides trusted guidance to organizations of all types and sizes requiring domestic and global relocation solutions and serves 60% of the Fortune 50. Any relocation has the potential to throw a curveball that would challenge even the best of relocation professionals. At Cartus, 60 years in the business, moving millions of employees in 185 countries, has given us the experience to handle any situation. No matter how complex the relocation challenge, or how unusual the request, Cartus will find the right solution. We encourage you to read true accounts about how our "Have Done, Will Do" approach has translated into customized solutions that meet the unique needs of our clients and their transferring employees around the world.
